Coaches and assistant coaches are expected to maintain a higher level of sportsmanship, professionalism and integrity both on and off the field. Coaches' primary responsibility is for his/her players to have fun, to develop soccer players, and to instill a passion for the game. Your performance as a coach is not measured in wins and loses but rather in what you teach your players in terms of sportsmanship, and fair play, technique. Coaches must maintain respect for the game as well as the referees. Coaches are charged with the responsibility of controlling themselves, their players and parents at all times during practices and matches. Coaches lead and teach by example; your players will be a reflection of you.

By my signature, I agree to abide by KYSA and RYSA Rules and Regulations.
